

AN INVITATION

Jewish Philanthropy Research Seminar

We are pleased to invite you to the newly initiated Jewish Philanthropy Research Seminar, an effort to promote new research and collaboration in the study of Jewish philanthropy and related topics.

In 2021–22, the seminar will be meeting four times during the year over Zoom, aiming to bring together scholars from North America, Europe, and Israel for hour-long sessions featuring new research and scholarly conversation.

As of now, the schedule includes the following presentations. Please note that most meetings will occur on Wednesdays at 12pm EST, a time we hope works for people in various time zones.

OCTOBER 20, 2021 | 12:00–1:00 PM EST

Jaclyn Granick, Cardiff University

Between America and Europe: Philanthropic Activism and International Jewish Politics

NOVEMBER 17, 2021 | 12:00–1:00 PM EST

Ariel Cohen, University of Virginia

Exhibiting Cultural Philanthropy: Women, Power, and Museums in Jewish America, 1920–1970

FEBRUARY 23, 2022 | 12:00–1:00PM EST

Laurie Paarlberg & Hanna Shaul Bar Nissim, Lilly Family School of Philanthropy, IUPUI

in conversation about community foundation giving during the pandemic

MARCH 23, 2022 | 12:00–1:00PM EST

Jonathan Dekel-Chen, Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Some Thoughts on the Past & Future of Jewish (Philanthropic) Engagement with the World

To RSVP and receive the Zoom Meeting link, email Dajana@upenn.edu.

Please feel welcome to share this invitation with any colleagues or graduate students with relevant research interests.

The seminar is organized by Lila Corwin Berman and Steven Weitzman as part of the Jewish Philanthropy Research Initiative hosted by the Herbert D. Katz Center for Advanced Judaic Studies at the University of Pennsylvania and the Feinstein Center for American Jewish History at Temple University, with sponsorship from the Lippman Kanfer Foundation for Living Torah.